

IRIS DIGITAL VIDEO SYSTEMS

height strip cameras

IRIS offers Height Strip Cameras incorporating Advanced High Sensitivity technology, featuring an unparalleled 800 lines of resolution, and 130dB wide dynamic range to address difficult lighting situations. Our imager sensor technology includes Motion Digital Zoom, which allows the camera to zoom in/out revealing even more detail when a subject enters a user-defined target area. These features and more are all user adjustable.

Along with its outstanding resolution, Advanced High Sensitivity technology offers increased image compression advantages, image noise reduction, electronic shutter, and digital image stabilization.

Height Strip Cameras allow unobtrusive surveillance of facility entrances and exits. Available in two finishes and various focal lengths.

Some of the applications for these cameras are:

- Financial institutions
- Department stores
- Convenience stores
- Courthouses
- Police departments
- Commercial buildings
- Commercial businesses
- Hotel facilities
- Restaurants
- Security checkpoints
