Any way you look at it, IRIS Digital Video Systems always see the light and soon we'll have you seeing the light too, one image at a time.
